

Monthly Dialogues on Questions of Faith & Religion

The Hyde Park & Kenwood Interfaith Council is sponsoring this series of monthly dialogues on questions of faith and religion. These dialogues will have a facilitator and some discussion starters, but will provide an opportunity for all attending to address the question of the day. Therefore, we encourage those planning to attend to give thought to the question in advance and come prepared to speak to it, though individuals who have not developed an answer are also welcome, so that the views of others might help guide their consideration of the issue.

Sunday, March 7, 2010, 5 to 6:30 p.m.
KAM Isaiah Israel, 1100 E. Hyde Park Blvd., in the Library
(enter through the door adjoining the parking lot on Greenwood)

Question: "How does your personal relationship with God, Truth, or Ultimate Reality influence your attitude toward death and your thoughts on our existence after death?"

Sunday, April 11, 2010, 5 to 6:30 p.m..
Chicago Theological School, entering via 1164 E. 58th St.

Question: "What is your faith tradition's response to environmental issues?"

Sunday, May 2, 2010, 5 to 6:30 p.m.
Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints, 5200 S. University Ave.

Question: "What have been the most significant changes in your denomination/larger faith tradition over recent decades?"

Sunday, June 6, 2010, 5 to 6:30 p.m.
57th St. Meeting of Friends, 5615 S. Woodlawn Ave.

Question: "How does American culture, and particularly its media, affect your faith?"

Light refreshments will be available at each Interfaith dialogue

While we have developed many questions for future monthly dialogues, those attending will be invited to complete a card with a question they would like to have considered at a future interfaith dialogue on questions of faith and religion,

If you would like to join the committee that organizes these interfaith dialogues, you are invited to phone or e-mail us to express your interest.
